

Discussing the proposal of a European Media Freedom Act

European media between decreasing revenues and a quest for pluralism

28 April 2023

EUI campus - Sala Cappella and online - Villa Schifanoia, Via Boccaccio 121 - Florence

Elda Brogi | European University Institute

Giovanni Melogli | European University Institute

Pier Luigi Parcu | European University Institute

Introduction

The workshop will discuss the EC proposal of a European Media Freedom Act from the perspective of the internal market. The debate will also focus on the ongoing debate at the European Parliament.

Programme

28 April

14.30 - 14.40 Introduction
Pier Luigi Parcu | European University Institute

14.40 - 15.50 First roundtable
How will the internal market benefit from EMFA?

Moderator
Pier Luigi Parcu | European University Institute

Carlos Aguilar Paredes | ERGA / Comisión Nacional de los Mercados y la Competencia

Lapo Filistrucchi | European University Institute / University of Florence

Anna Herold | European Commission, DG Connect Audiovisual and Media services policy

Andreas Schwab | European Parliament

Wout van Wijk | News Media Europe

15.50 - 16.00 Coffee break

16.00 - 17.00

Second roundtable

Discussion on the EP proposed amendment to EMFA

Moderator

Elda Brogi | European University Institute

Lubos Kuklis | European Commission, DG Connect, Digital Services and Platforms

Carmen Lembo | European Parliament

Iva Nenadic | European University Institute

Renate Schroeder | European Federation of Journalists

Maria Luisa Stasi | Article 19

Damian Tambini | London School of Economics and Political Science

17.00 - 17.10

Concluding remarks

Pier Luigi Parcu | European University Institute

Andreas Schwab | European Parliament