

Upholding Democracy in the EU

Strengthening EU Instruments to Safeguard Journalism and Media Pluralism

24 November 2023

University of Malta & Online

In-person participation in the event is by invitation only. Channels for online streaming will be announced prior to the event.

Scientific Organisers

Iva Nenadić | European University Institute

Louise Vassallo | University of Malta

Introduction

Event co-organised by the Centre for Media Pluralism and Media Freedom of the European University Institute and the Department of Media and Communications, within the Faculty of Media and Knowledge Sciences at the University of Malta.

Programme

24 November

10.00 - 11.30 Panel: EU Approach to Protecting Media Pluralism: from Evidence to Action

Roberta Metsola | President of the European Parliament (video message)

Iva Nenadić | EUI

Louise Vassallo | University of Malta

Beata Klimkiewicz | Jean Monnet Chair, Jagiellonian University

Oliver Money-Kyrle | International Press Institute

Elda Brogi | EUI

11.30 - 12.00 Coffee Break

12.00 - 13.30 Round Table: Rule of Law and the Conditions for Journalism in Malta

Moderator:

Manuel Delia | Journalist and Blogger

Corinne Vella | The Daphne Caruana Galizia Foundation

Herman Grech | Times of Malta

Caroline Muscat | The Shift News

Joe Cannataci | UN Special Rapporteur on the Right to Privacy & University of Malta

Therese Comodini Cachia | Human Rights Lawyer & Legal Counsel to the Caruana Galizia Family